
Mrs. David Shuler Johnson

Harris, Johnson wed

Chestnut Hill United Methodist Church on Fort Avenue in Lynchburg, was the setting of the December 12, 1981 wedding of Judy Renee Harris and David Shuler Johnson. The double ring ceremony was performed at 3:00 p.m. before a beautiful altar of candelabra, red poinsettias, white chrysanthemums and palms by the Rev. Mr. Donald M. Seely, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Mr. John W. Johnson, pastor of Timberlake Christian Church and father of the groom.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Loflin Harris of Lynchburg and the groom is the son of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. John Willard Johnson, also of Lynchburg. The groom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Fred Amos Shuler resides in Elkton, Virginia. The bride's maternal grandfather, Mr. Hilton Rucker Wilkerson, resides in Orlando, Florida.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautifully attired in full length gown of white satin with Empire bodice attached to a yoke of Venice lace. The bodice was appliqued with motifs of lace and seed pearls. Appliques of lace were on the long sleeves, cuffs and the high rise waist line. The watteau train was finished with a deep ruffle of lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white silk stephanotis, baby's breath, and roses centered with a white orchid.

Attired in garnet Moire faille with basque bodice, puffed sleeves and floor length skirt, Miss Susan Marguerite Harris of the University of Virginia was maid-of-honor for her sister.

Other attendants were Miss Ann-Hope Johnson of James Madison University and sister of the groom; Miss Kimberly Anita Simmons of Machanicsville, Virginia, cousin of the bride; Miss Katherine Marie Jordan, Miss Michelle Denise Garrett and Miss Cynthia Lynn Garrett, all of Lynchburg. The bridesmaids were attired in floor-length gowns of emeral green Moire faille with basque bodice and puffed sleeves. They carried nosegays of red, pink and white silk flowers, with red ribbons streamers. In their hair they wore a small spray of matching silk flowers.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length gown of violet chiffon over taffeta and the groom's mother wore a floor length gown of maroon chiffon over taffeta. Both wore corsages of pink orchids.

John Mark "Journey" Johnson, executive director of the Bedford Area YMCA, served as best man for his brother. The ushers were Randall Eugene Harris of Roanoke, brother of the bride; Paul Randall Johnson, Lynchburg, brother of the groom; William Alan Tedder, Luray, Virginia; Stanley Douglas Gray, Jr. and G. Edward Wright, Jr., Lynchburg. The acolyte was Ricky Loflin Harris, Lynchburg, brother of the bride.

The organist was Mrs. Jo Anne Dudley of Bedford and the soloist was Miss Charlie Rainwater of Altavista.

The wedding reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. Mrs. James W. Yates presided at the punch bowl and the wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. W. Murrell Jordan and Mrs. Donald M. Holt, aunt of the bride. Miss Cathy Lynn Seebach, Lynchburg College, presided at the guest book.

The bride is an honor graduate of Brookville High School and the groom a magna cum laude graduate of James Madison University where he was selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. He is presently program manager for WTTX-FM in Appomattox, Virginia.

After a wedding trip, the young couple will reside near Appomattox.

Reynolds, Lawson wed

The marriage of Miss Anne Elizabeth Lawson to Mr. Ralph Dillard Reynolds Jr. took place on Friday, December 18, at seven-thirty in the evening at the Memorial United Methoidst Church, Appomattox.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Merlie Guill Lawson and Dr. Samuel Robert Lawson, both of Appomattox. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dillard Reynolds Sr. also of Appomattox.

The Reverend Paul Edward Leonard, Jr., minister of the church officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar of white poinsettias and magnolia.

A program of nuptial music was provided by Miss Debbie Rush, organist, Mrs. James F. Crawford, pianist, all of Appomattox, and Mr. William W. Ford, III of Lynchburg, trumpet soloist. Vocalists were Mrs. Charlene Lawson, Mr. David Eye and Miss Tamara Nash, all of Appomattox.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown featuring a high neckline and bishop sleeves with a fitted bodice trimmed in Chantilly lace and seed pearls. The gown flowed from an empire waistline into a chiffon skirt, appliqued in Chantilly lace. The cathedral train was edged in Chantilly lace.

The matching, cathedral length, illusion veil was trimmed in Chantilly lace, enhancing the juliet cap. She carried a cascading bouquet of gardenias and minature white carnations.

Mrs. Thomas Allen Bondurant of Lynchburg was matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown of rouge and carried a single white poinsettia with magnolia.

Miss Lou Anne Sears of Richmond was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Lawson, Mrs. Michael Porton, Miss Merinda Lawson and Miss Susan Smith, all of Appomattox. Their dresses were identical to that of the honor attendants and they carried a single white poinsettia and magnolia.

Mr. Reynolds was his son's best man. Ushers were Mr. Steven Lawson of Lynchburg, Mr. Robert Luck of Appomattox, Mr. Rick Burge of Lynchburg, Mr. Roger Almond of Concord and Mr. Donnie Neas of Roanoke.

Miss Rachel Lawson of Appomattox was flower girl and Gibson Luck of Richmond was ring bearer.

Acolytes were Ray Lawson and Marshall Luck.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a floor length gown of champaign and she wore a shoulder corsage of cymbidium orchids.

The groom's mother wore a floor length gown of cranberry and she wore a wrist corsage of cymbidium orchids.

Miss Donna Mitchell attended the guest register. Julie and Anne Tutwiler handed programs to each guest. Mrs. W. W. Wallis directed the wedding.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception at the Falling River Country Club.

The bride is employed as a teacher with the Appomattox County School Division and the groom is employed by Virginia Fibre Corporation.

The couple will reside in Appomattox.
